LA VALLEE DE L'OURIKA TOUR 2

The High Atlas is the biggest mountain range in North Africa. It offers extremely impressive mountain biking, hiking trails and mountain photography. High peaks force the clouds to give high quantities of rainfall; therefore the High Atlas has many fertile valleys surrounded by rivers and waterfalls; in summer when the weather is exhausting, Ourika valley is a good escape at only one hour drive from Marrakesh. Setti Fatma is at the end of the Ourika Valley; It has seven beautiful waterfalls, breathtaking views and mountain trails that require a pair of walking shoes.. It's a breathtaking sight that cannot be missed

DEPARTURE: 09h30 RETURN: 16h00

Price: 350 DIR (approx. £29 - Includes lunch)

ESSAOUIRA TOUR 3

A full day excursion to the Atlantic coast to visit the charming town of Essaouira shows visitors one of the oldest and most important fishing ports in Morocco. Old Mogador was founded by the Romans and inhabited by the Portuguese during the 17th century. This typical Portuguese harbour, with fine examples of both Moorish and Portuguese art, was the setting for many scenes in the film "Othello". Sightseeing includes the harbour, ramparts, medina, the 17th century cannons brought from Spain, and the local artists quarter
